The Depository hereby acknowledges that it has been advised of Issuer's grant to the Secured Party of a security interest in the Wallet, including all assets held in or credited to the Wallet from time to time. - (b) The Depository represents and warrants that it is a regulated custodian by the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (BaFin).
 - (c) Until such time as the Secured Party shall deliver to the Depository a Notice of Exclusive Control, withdrawals from the Wallet may only take place upon the Issuer submitting to the Depository a request for withdrawal in accordance with the terms of the Master Services Agreement (a "Withdrawal Request") which is (i) Authenticated by the Issuer and (ii) additionally Authenticated by the Administrator.  - (d) Secured Party may exercise sole and exclusive control of the Custodial Accounts and the Collateral held therein at any time by delivering to Depository a Notice of Exclusive Control. Upon receipt of a Notice of Exclusive Control, subject to Section 3(f) below, Depository shall, without inquiry, and in reliance upon such Notice of Exclusive Control, thereafter, comply with instructions (including entitlement orders and other instructions) Authenticated by the Secured Party with respect to the Collateral in the Wallet, including with respect to the withdrawal of the Collateral from the Wallet, and revocation of Staking Instructions. Depository will have no liability to Secured Party or Issuer for complying with a Notice of Exclusive Control or instructions (including entitlement orders) originated by Secured Party. Depository will be fully protected in complying with a Notice of Exclusive Control (and any instructions, including entitlement orders, originated by Secured Party) whether or not Secured Party had the right to issue such Notice of Exclusive Control and whether or not Issuer may allege that no rights of Secured Party exist to provide such instructions or to issue the Notice of Exclusive Control.
 - (e) The foregoing Section 3(d) notwithstanding, during the period of 30 days immediately following the date on which the Depository receives a Notice of Exclusive Control delivered by the Secured Party, the Issuer may contest the existence of an Event of Default by appeal to the Bondholders' Representative or if none appointed, the Secured Party. During such 30 day period, in the absence of the Secured Party revoking the Notice of Exclusive Control, no withdrawal of the Collateral from the Wallet by the Issuer or Secured Party, or revocation of Staking Instructions relating to the Collateral shall be permitted, except pursuant to a request for withdrawal and/or revocation of Staking Instructions that is both Authenticated by the Secured Party and Authenticated by the Issuer.

- not accept instructions from solely the Issuer during the Setup Period.
- (h) Without limitation of the provisions set forth in this Agreement, the Secured Party agrees that it will not deliver a Notice of Exclusive Control unless an Event of Default (as defined in the Cryptocurrency Security Agreement) or other similar event has occurred under the Financing Documents has occurred and is continuing which entitles Secured Party to exercise its rights as a secured party with respect to the Collateral in the Custodial Accounts. The foregoing sentence will not be deemed to constitute a limitation on the Secured Party's rights hereunder, including (as between the Depository and the Secured Party) the Secured Party's right to deliver a Notice of Exclusive Control. In the event that the Secured Party delivers a Notice of Exclusive Control, it will, following the payment in full of the Obligations, return any excess Collateral to the Issuer's control.
 - (i) All of the Depository's present and future rights against the Wallets are subordinate to the Secured Party's security interest therein; provided, however, that the Secured Party agrees that nothing herein subordinates or waives the security interest that the Issuer hereby grants, and the Depository expressly reserves, as follows:
 - (i) a security interest granted by the Issuer, prior to that of the Secured Party in the Wallets to the extent necessary to secure the Depository for the payment of any charges, expenses (including Account Expenses defined in Section 9 commissions or fees (including third-party transaction fees) owing to the Depository with respect to the Wallets and services provided under the Master Services Agreement and under this Agreement ; and
 - (ii) the Depository's and its affiliates' rights of set-off with respect to the Wallets for the payment of any charges, expenses (including Account Expenses defined in Section 9 commissions or fees (including third-party transaction fees) owing to the Depository and its affiliates with respect to the Wallets and services provided under the Master Services Agreement and under this Agreement .
 - (j) Issuer also hereby grants a security interest in and lien on the Collateral to secure any advances (which, for the avoidance of doubt, Depository may, but is not obligated, to make) that Depository may from time to time make to, or for the benefit of, Issuer for purposes of clearing or settling purchases or sales of assets in the Custodial Accounts. The Depository agrees that such security interest in or lien on, or right of set-off against any of the Collateral that Depository may have now or in the future created under this Section 3 (j) is hereby subordinated to the security interest in favor of the Secured Party.
 - (k) Except for the claims and interests of the Secured Party and the Issuer, the Depository does not know of any claim to, or interest in, the Wallet or any asset credited thereto. If any person asserts any lien, encumbrance or adverse claim (including any writ, garnishment, judgment, attachment, execution or similar process) against the Wallet or any asset credited thereto, the Depository will promptly notify the other Parties thereof.
 - (k) The Depository represents and warrants that it has not entered into, and until the termination of this Agreement will not enter into, any agreement with any other person or entity not party hereto relating to the Collateral or the Wallet under which it has agreed to comply with instructions of such other person or entity. The Depository will not grant to any third party any lien, hypothecation, encumbrance, claim or right against the Collateral or the Wallet. This Agreement is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Depository, enforceable against the Depository in accordance with its terms.
 - (l) Depository will not be liable to Issuer or Secured Party or third party for (i) complying with any instructions from Secured Party, including a Notice of Exclusive Control, (ii) determining the adequacy of the Collateral, (iii) making or verifying any calculations relating to any Collateral requirements, (iv) the effect of any insolvency proceeding of either of Secured Party or Issuer, (v) the creation, attachment, perfection or priority of any security interest granted under or in connection with the Financing Agreement or (vi) the adequacy of any remedies of enforcement for the parties hereunder.

- (m) To the extent that the Issuer stakes any Collateral, all time periods under this Agreement with respect to delivery or transfer of any such Collateral shall automatically be extended to include any unbonding period, restrictions, or other delays that result from staking or unstaking.

- 4. Reliance on Instructions. The Depository will be entitled to rely on any instructions that it reasonably believes to be delivered by an Authorized Person of the Secured Party listed on Annex B, but only if such instructions are Authenticated by the Secured Party. The Depository will be entitled to rely on instructions that it reasonably believes to be delivered by an Authorized Person of the Administrator listed on Annex C and signed electronically provided that the electronic signature is verified using the public key listed on Annex C. The Depository will not be required to verify the calculation of amounts, the occurrence of an event of default under the Financing Documents, or whether the Issuer or Secured Party is complying with its obligations under the Terms and Conditions except to the extent specified in this Agreement. The Depository will be entitled, but not obliged, to additionally satisfy itself with respect to the authenticity of any instruction ostensibly delivered by any Authorized Person of the Secured Party, including by requiring that authority to act on behalf of the Secured Party is certified by an independent officer of the Secured Party, such as the corporate secretary, and imposing such additional requirements as may be set forth in the Master Services Agreement or otherwise.

Notwithstanding the above, the Depository has no duty to investigate or verify (i) whether Secured Party is authorized under the Financing Documents to give any instructions or Notice of Exclusive Control, (ii) the validity of any notice, or the content thereof, provided pursuant to this Agreement or (iv) compliance with applicable law by Secured Party or Issuer. The Depository shall have no duties or responsibilities whatsoever except such duties and responsibilities as are specifically set forth in this Agreement, and no covenant or obligation shall be implied against the Depository in connection with this Agreement. The Depository will have no fiduciary duties under this Agreement to any other party, whether as trustee, agent, bailee, or otherwise.

5. Responsibility of the Depository.

- (a) The Depository will not be liable for the acts or omissions of an Authorized Person of the Secured Party or an Authorized Person of the Administrator. As between the Depository and Issuer, the terms of the Master Services Agreement will apply with respect to any losses or liabilities of such Parties arising out of the Terms and Conditions or this Agreement. As between the Depository and the Secured Party, the Depository will not be liable for any act or omission taken by the Depository in good faith and without gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith on its part. For the avoidance of doubt, absent gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith, the Depository, in its capacity as depository, shall have no responsibility or liability to the Secured Party for complying with a Notice of Exclusive Control or complying with instructions concerning the Wallet originated by the Secured Party.
- (b) The Issuer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Depository and its officers, directors, trust officers, employees and agents (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any loss, expense, damage, liability or claim (including but not limited to documented reasonable attorney's fees) which may be suffered or incurred by the Depository as a result of any action or inaction of Depository or arising out of Depository's performance under this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any such damages and liabilities which may be suffered or incurred by Depository in acting pursuant to the entitlement orders or instructions issued solely by Secured Party, or jointly by Secured Party and Issuer) except as may be caused by the Depository's gross negligence or willful misconduct. This indemnity shall be a continuing obligation of the Issuer and its successors and assigns, notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement.

- (c) The Secured Party hereby agrees to release and discharge the Depository from and against any loss, expense, damage, liability or claim (including attorney's fees) which may be suffered or incurred by the Secured Party as a result of the Depository's compliance with the Secured Party's Notice of Exclusive Control and any instructions (including instructions concerning the Wallet) issued by the Secured Party following the Depository's receipt of such Notice of Exclusive Control, except as may be caused by the Depository's gross negligence or willful misconduct.
- (d) The Depository shall exercise reasonable care in carrying out its duties under this Agreement. In this Agreement, reasonable care shall mean the degree of care and diligence that could reasonably be expected of a professional custodian of digital assets operating in Germany. Depository shall not be liable to the Secured Party, Issuer or any other Person under this Agreement except to the extent of its gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud in the performance of its duties and obligations under this Agreement.
- (e) In no event shall any Party be liable for special, indirect or consequential damages, or lost profits or loss of business, arising in connection with this Agreement unless caused by gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of such Party.
- (f) The Depository hereby confirms that the Wallet will be established as set forth in Section 2 and will be maintained in the manner set forth herein until this Agreement is terminated.
